PRIORITY OF ACCESS EXPLAINED

The Australian Government has 'Priority of Access Guidelines' to ensure a fair system for allocating places when there is a waiting list for a child care service or when a number of parents are applying for a limited number of vacant places.

Every Child Care Benefit approved child care service has to abide by the guidelines and tell you about them when you enrol your child into care.

Priority of Access is determined by the following circumstances. Please tick the circumstances relevant to your family noting that you may be required to provide proof under Section 14 of the Family Assistance Act.

Priority	Main categories
<input type="checkbox"/> First Priority: a child at risk of serious abuse or neglect <input type="checkbox"/> Second Priority: a child of a single parent who satisfies, or of parents who both satisfy, the work/training/study test under Section 14 of the 'A New Tax System (Family Assistance) Act 1999'	<input type="checkbox"/> Children in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families <input type="checkbox"/> Children in families which include a disabled person <input type="checkbox"/> Children in families which include an individual whose adjusted taxable income does not exceed the lower income threshold of $43,727 for 2016-2017, or who is, or whose partner is on income support <input type="checkbox"/> Children in families from a non-English speaking background <input type="checkbox"/> Children in socially isolated families <input type="checkbox"/> Children of single parents.
<input type="checkbox"/> Third Priority: any child currently enrolled in Mortdale (not meeting First or Second priority.) <input type="checkbox"/> Fourth Priority: Any other child.

I understand the Priority of Access conditions outlined and agree to notify the centre should my circumstances change.
